ABOUT IUFF:

For 13 years, the International Uranium Film Festival (IUFF) has presented cutting edge films on nuclear issues around the world, including Brazil, Germany, India, Canada, and the United States. Founded by social scientist Márcia Gomes de Oliveira and environmental journalist Norbert G. Suchanek, the IUFF is dedicated to all nuclear topics and the entire nuclear fuel chain, from uranium mining to nuclear waste, from nuclear war to nuclear accidents. Local sponsors are Economic Action Group of the First Unitarian Church, Oregon Conservancy Foundation, Alliance for Democracy

ATOMIC BAMBOOZLE, directed by Jan Haaken and featuring Oregon history, was selected for the 2024 US tour and screens in five cities in the Pacific Northwest in April: Vancouver BC, April 12th, Seattle, April 14th, Olympia, April 16th, and Portland, April 17th. The film received the IUFF Special Jury Award for tackling the current push for small nuclear reactors.

Available for interviews: Interviews: The International Uranium Film Festival sponsors, Márcia Gomes de Oliveira and Norbert G. Suchanek (-55-21972 0767 04), and ATOMIC BAMBOOZLE Director, Jan Haaken (haakenj@pdx.edu), are available for interviews.
